PROCEEDINGS: XX Open Court Chambers Other

Defendant's presence waived. Motion to clarify whether or not the Court intended in imposing its sentence that the defendant get credit for the approximate five motnhs that he was serving his sentence on a revocation of probation out of Maricopa County where he also rejected his release conditions in Tucson, on for hearing. The Court meant to impose the sentence that it imposed and was leaving the computations up to the Bureau of Prisons. At the time of sentence, no comment or intention was made as to whether or not it was to be concurrent or consecutive.
The Government stated it's opinion and agreement to the Court. However, the Court has no objection to the defendant getting credit for the five months in question.
